

January 18, 2007

To Whom It May Concern:

My daughter is in K4 and absolutely loves it. She really enjoys bringing home a new book every night for us to read together. It is an encouraging project that should continue for the development of reading skills. Having a baby limits my opportunity to visit the library with my daughter. The reading books are a tremendous help for me.

Sincerely,

Andrea West

Andrea West